Commission Revives Soph Show

At last Tuesday's meeting of the commission, it was decided that the Sophomore Show must go on—so Wednesday, May 7, the annual Sophomore Show will be presented in the J.C. Little Theater. The time for the performance will be disclosed later.

The show, which was previously cancelled without the knowledge of the entire committee, is being reorganized under a new leader and, after a rehearsal Monday evening, will be presented to the student body. It was felt by some of the commissioners that since the affair has been held every year in the past it should definitely be held this year.

CAMPOLO DISCUSSED

A resolution concerning the sudden resignation of Dominic Campolo, J.C. football coach, from the junior college coaching staff was read by President Tony Mercante. He stated that a group of student representatives, including himself and Finis Jeffers, representing the commission, will meet with the Salinas Union High School Board at an unofficial meeting. They will present the resolution, together with petitions from the students and businessmen in this area, to the school board.

Miss Ruth Rothrock, financial advisor, announced that John Vucina has been appointed to the office of Commissioner of Finance for the next school year. Miss Rothrock, Vucina, Mr. Borough, Joaquin Market, present commissioner of finance, and two other members of the commission will meet Monday at noon to review the tentative budgets for next year.

FRESHMEN GET ATTENTION

Jeanne Stanbery, commissioner of publications, suggested that the election of commissioners be held in the near future instead of next fall. She said it had been called to her attention by some of the freshmen that they knew little of what was going on when the election of officers was held so soon after the beginning of school in September.

Marge Diaz, freshman representative, said that the Mascaconi dance, which has been a tradition at S.J.C. as the only masquerade dance of the year and is always sponsored by the Freshmen class, was not held this year. A discussion was held as to whether or not there was still time to plan for the annual event. It was mentioned that since at a

Election for Next Year's Officers Set; Petitions Start Circulating Next Monday

Deficiencies Mailed To 184 Students

Out of a student body of approximately 780 students, 184 will be receiving deficiency notices in the mail.

About 25 per cent of the students are on the list posted in the main hall with at least one deficient class. This percentage is lower than the 33 per cent of last semester.

If a deficiency notice is received, it does not necessarily signify that the student is flunking the class. It does mean that the standing in the class is on the borderline between passing and failing.

Action taken by the commission at their last meeting has resulted in election of student body officers being scheduled for this month rather than early fall as has been the custom in the past. Petitions will be out this coming Monday, May 5, and must be turned in by Friday, May 9, at 4 o'clock. The general election will be held Friday, May 16. If a run-off election is necessary, it will be scheduled for Friday, May 23.

It was brought out at the commission meeting Tuesday, April 29, that there had been some ill will among the freshmen this year because the election was held so early in the year—before they were fully aware of the procedure of nominating candidates for office. Also it was felt that it would be to the benefit of the student body if the officers were elected early so that they could sit in on the rest of the commission meetings this year and thus gain knowledge of how the meetings are conducted. This would be to the benefit of the new officers when they take over their positions in the fall.

In considering the eligibility of candidates for nomination, officers urged petitioners to be sure to find out if the candidate is planning to attend the junior college next year.

All of the student body officers, with the exception of commissioner of finance, which is an appointive office, and the freshman representative, who will be elected at a class meeting in the fall, will be elected May 16.

This is the most important student body election of the year, President Tony Mercante said. He urged students to take out

Comedy Ends Run Tomorrow

Yesterday, a full house attended the initial showing of the year's hilarious comedy hit, "January Thaw." Tonight and tomorrow night will be the last two show dates for the play, the curtain rising at 8:15 p.m. both nights.

The humorous tribulations of two families living under one Connecticut roof is portrayed by Salinas Junior College dramatic students under the direction of Miss Faith Fraser. Starring in the play are Holt Wood, Jacquelyn Anderson, Jim Clarke, Joan Waite, and a supporting cast of nine.

Holt Wood, well known for his various J.C. skits, and his excellent part in "The Barretts," portrays Herbert Gage in "January Thaw." His wife, Jacquelyn Anderson, assists him in remodeling an early colonial home in Connecticut after they leave New York.

Original owners of the home are Jim Clarke and Joan Waite, farmers who return to complicate the plot when they maintain that they are still owners.

The Gage children are played by Barbara Barnett, Nancy Watson, and Carmen Mercante. Love interest centers around the oldest Gage child who has the at-

More Than 600 Sign Petitions Favoring Coach

Over 600 signatures have been placed on the petition requesting an investigation of Coach Dominic Campolo's resignation, more than 60 of these being signatures of downtown businessmen. With no letdown on last week's fervor, student leaders are determined and anxious to obtain the views of the Salinas School Board.

Student spokesmen announced that plans have been made for the presentation of the petition to the school board. It was suggested efforts be made to request the board to call a meeting to consider the situation.

Student leaders said that the majority of the student body have expressed reluctance in accepting the popular coach's resignation. It seems, however, that the rest is up to the school board after the petition has been presented.

Meanwhile, President Lemos reported that he is continuing efforts to obtain a "name" football coach at Salinas next year. Several former coast stars are under consideration.

June '47 Graduation Largest Since War

The largest class since the war will graduate this spring, it was indicated this week when names of 82 sophomores were posted as graduation applicants. Of course, all aspirants are reminded that they must have the necessary grades and that the "finals" are just around the corner.

The following list of students have filed approved graduation applications at the main office. Allowing for additions and deletions, they are: Adams, Rea Edward; Alarid, Ruth Elizabeth; Anthony, Frances Jacqueline; Armstrong, Susanne Irvine; Arnett, Earl LeRoy.

Barstad, Sherwood R.; Beck, Edith Irene; Bell, Patricia Marie; Breslauer, Martha Jean; Brodie, Gloria Adele; Brown, Alyce June Kinder; Bruce, John R.; Burgman, Bill.

Weatherbie, Patricia Jo; White, Ruby Jean; Williams, Robert Crosby; Wong, Thomas Ock; Work, Robert Edward; Yuen, Ellen.

Hold Picnic

Next Wednesday noon, members of the Colhecon Club will picnic in Central Park. After the lunch, there will be a short

A charge of 25 cents will be made for the picnic, and the members are asked to sign up on the sheet in the main hall and pay Mrs. Hope Baxter in advance, if possible.

ON OTHER CAMPUSES

A "fifth column" which incidentally litters lawns and grounds at San Francisco State College has the institution authorities worried. The thing is past the prank stage with fences being pulled down and fixtures removed. Students are being urged to "squellch" anyone they see at any of these pursuits.

A Whiskerino, complete with day-long celebration and imaginative tortures for the beardless was held at Santa Maria J.C. Costumes waxed wild and shaggy and the campus was the scene of several mock duels, lynchings, and hold-ups. The business of the day was wound up at a dance in the college's social hall.

College dramatic groups appear to be enjoying unprecedented popularity in many colleges. A one-act play, "The Valiant," was given at Oceanside-Carlsbad J.C.; Pepperdine College presented Thornton Wilder's "The Skin of Our Teeth," and "Vanities of 1947" greeted student audiences at Santa Maria Junior College, all with gratifying attendance by the respective student bodies.

VETERANS' NEWS

Veterans attending Salinas J.C. under the G.I. Bill who plan to enter summer school, should contact Mr. Jerry Girdner in the Veterans Administration office next week. It is necessary to have a supplemental certificate of eligibility to present to the new school on registration day.

Veterans planning to transfer in September will be given an opportunity to apply for their supplementary certificate during the last two weeks of school.

Those planning to re-enter Salinas J.C. in September will not need a supplementary certificate unless there is a change in course or objective. Students will be re-entered upon presentation of their grade cards on registration day.

Veterans not currently under the G.I. Bill, and who are planning to use their entitlement next semester, are urged to apply for their certificate now in the Veterans Administration office. A photostat, or certified copy, of the discharge is all that is required.

THINKING OUT LOUD

By "TOPPER" ARNETT

CAMPOLO CAMPAIGN

Petitions circulated by students' leaders asking that Coach Dominic Campolo be retained on the junior college coaching staff now have well over 600 student signatures.

Petitions being circulated in uptown Salinas now bear the names of several of the city's most prominent businessmen and merchants.

Armed with this positive proof, this group of interested students are now making plans to meet with the Salinas School Board at the first possible moment.

The board, in all fairness to this student group, should grant this meeting.

According to all democratic standards, this student group attacked the problem in the true American way. Without a show of violence or belligerence this group has set out to achieve their purpose in a quite peaceful manner.

It is now up to the board to uphold this truly democratic action and grant the meeting.

STUDENT ELECTION

Student body members may take out petitions for student body offices starting next Monday morning. Those taking out petitions should remember that aside from meeting the necessary requirements of carrying at least ten and one-half units and maintaining a "C" average, the candidate should be one whose primary interest is a sincere desire to better conditions at the college.

It is our hope that this election will pack more spirit and punch than those held in previous years. Several groups are already preparing a high-powered campaign.

PAINTING DISAPPEARS

An oil painting mysteriously disappeared from the Salinas Junior College Art Gallery last Wednesday afternoon. 'Tis rumored that the frame was very valuable.

Finals Begin May 27th Last Thru June 6th

Final examinations will begin on Tuesday, May 27, and will extend through Friday, June 6, announced junior college President John B. Lemos yesterday.

He also added that all students must have their lockers cleaned out, and be cleared with the library, bookstore, labs, and instructors by June 6.

class meeting the majority of the freshmen had preferred a barn dance to the traditional Spanish affair, it might as well be dropped.

NAMES COMING SLOWLY

The contest to name the athletic fields and baseball diamond has been going slowly, so the commission decided to suggest to the Pep Club that they take over the contest as their project and offer a prize. A Pep Club meeting will be called by the commission and the suggestion will be taken up at that time.

Plans for a commission dinner were made and it was decided that a dinner party be held at Cademartori's restaurant on May 24, for members of the student commission and their guests.

An out-of-town baseball game contributed to the absence of two commission members. Those present at Tuesday's meeting were Tony Mercante, Jean Emery, Marge Diaz, Beverly Staton, Dave Geery, and Jeanne Stanbery.

Others in the cast are Bob Bushta, a police inspector; Bill Holm, 86-year-old Uncle Walter; and Earl Arnett, attorney retained by the Gages to straighten out their difficulties.

Junior college students who attended yesterday have given fine recommendations for the play. While few tickets remain for tonight, good seats are still available for Saturday night.

President Lemos requested that any student finding a conflict in the finals schedule to please report at once to the main office.

It will be optional as to whether the three-hour per week classes which fall on other than the usual Monday, Wednesday, and Friday hold their final in the afternoon or morning.

BIDS NOW ON SALE FOR SPRING PROM—MAY 16

Beautiful Hotel Rio Del Mar will be the scene of the Salinas Junior College annual Spring Prom, May 16, only two weeks away. Tickets are on sale now, $7 per couple. Only 150 bids will be sold, and it will be the last formal affair of this school season.

The Social Activities Commissioner in charge of the prom announces that the bids include a choice of entree for the evening. Jimmy Rodgers and his orchestra will furnish sweet, smooth music for dancing pleasure.

Located near Aptos, Hotel Rio Del Mar is well remembered as the place where the successful Winter Ball was held. Many famous personages have noted it on the must list for their visits to northern California, and the resort is equally famed for its excellent cuisine.

CAMPUS CLOTHES

By
PATTIE WEATHERBIE

The Sadie Hawkins' dance Friday night was crowded with big boots and barefeet a-stompin' to a really good "ork." Daisy Mae (Jean Emery) wandered around in the usual garb of a short black jagged skirt, dotted peasant blouse, and the blonde tresses to win first prize for authenticity. "Stinky" Williams, former J.C. student, won second prize for wearing a very fitted brown garment without sleeves, and one trouser leg cut higher than the other . . . apparently the wolf gal" with imagination! A dark-haired vivacious Daisy Mae with the long braid over one shoulder was Lily Perez with the characteristic peasant blouse and dark jagged skirt.

Down from the mountains to sell the vittles was Ruth McBride in a gunnysack dress, with a rope belt and homemade shoes, and rugged lookin' Mel Wilson you may have noticed at school during the day. Mel wore big baggy overalls with a torn shirt and a torn hat. An alarm clock and a real shotgun completed the realistic garb, so they both took the prize for the outstanding couple.

Cain't say the Santa Cruz boys don't know how to dress when it comes Sadie Hawkins' Day, as feminine surprised screams testified when encountered unexpectedly in the halls. Chuck Lewis won first prize at the dance for his buckskin outfit with a raccoon hat and a water gun. The last item was quite a menace to the unsuspecting scantily dressed women at the dance. Another mountaineer was Phil Trine in a real beard, ragged clothes held together by a brightly colored one-strap suspender, carrying an umbrella and a jug labeled sake. A city slicker in a 1902 golfer's uniform was Loren Ingols with a "plunger" for a club. Another mountaineer was Richard Ramponi with a tie of blue and yellow to contrast all the other bright colors. A gunnysack jerkin disclosed the red long Johns worn by Chuck Bem under Levi's slightly on the worn side. Chuck also carried a jug and wore a beaver hat with a long tail. All in all, they were loaded with "spirit!"

Johnny McPike and his original mind got the credit and the second prize for wearing coveralls with a torn hole exposing RED long Johns in a particular area. He claims he sat on a radiator. A wee hat perched upon a reddish brown wig cut in the "bowl" fashion to bowl you over were the accessories to make a very funny get-up even funnier!

Jean Emery Wins Daisy Mae Title

S.J.C. gals dated their guys and went in costume to dance in the men's gym last Friday night to the music of Tony Vyeda and his orchestra. The event was the annual Sadie Hawkins' Day dance sponsored by Upsilon Gamma Chi.

Highlight of the evening program was the judging of the best costumes. Gal winners were, respectively: Jean Emery as the typical Daisy Mae; Margaret Williams, dressed to represent Mooh-beam McSwine; and Lily Perez as a brunette Daisy Mae.

"Best dressed" males were, respectively: Chuck Lewis, wearing a buckskin outfit with a raccoon hat; John McPike in red woolens, Levi's, and a wig; and John Ogden, dressed up in a black cutaway coat, white trousers, derby hat, and horn-rimmed glasses.

Ruth McBride and Mel Wilson were chosen as the couple in best costume. Ruth wore a gunnysack dress, and Mel wore baggy overalls, shirt, and hat. Judges of the costumes were Mrs. Karl Bengston, Mr. G. Ed Adams, and the students present.

Master of ceremonies for the evening's fun was Charles Link. He and Pat Heple presented a "Grand Ole Opry" skit. Winner of the pie-eating contest was Marvin Davis. Nearly all of the dancers participated in "Musical Chairs." First place winner of the game was Ray McAfee. The second place winner was John Condon.

The decoration committee, with Gloria Brodie at its head, decked the gym with tree branches, a "Stanley Steamer" display, Dog-

Inquiring Reporter . .

QUESTION: If Monterey and Santa Cruz build junior colleges, what do you think would be the effect on Salinas?

Ruth Alarid, P.E. major, Salinas:

"I don't think it would affect S.J.C. too much because Salinas has more to offer than any new institution could possibly have in their first few years of operation. I don't think it would work."

Jim Heisinger, architecture, Carmel:

"I think if they build a J.C. on the peninsula, S.J.C. will gradually fade away. Without students from Carmel, Pacific Grove, and Monterey, Salinas would have a very small student body."

Alice Macartney, journalism, Salinas:

"I think the enrollment at S.J.C. would be greatly decreased. It would be bad for all three towns as there would be three small schools instead of one large one."

Rodger Curtise, prelegal course, Watsonville:

"I don't think Monterey should build a J.C. It couldn't possibly offer the same courses as Salinas at first, so the students would be wasting their time."

Cartoonist V. Partch Visits SJC

Virgil Partch, nationally famous cartoonist of Carmel Valley, spoke before a luncheon meeting of the Salinas Junior College Art Club last week, explaining the techniques of his profession.

During his interesting talk, Mr. Partch contended that cartooning is a "rough life," sometimes requiring as much as ten hours per week work, by quickly sketching several demonstration cartoons.

Several of the cartoons had never before been published, and were being done to test their laugh appeal.

Mr. Partch was very optimistic when questioned about the beginner's chances in breaking into the cartooning "racket," as he termed it.

Explaining that art editors are always on the lookout for new ideas and fresh techniques, the noted cartoonist encouraged the art students to send their drawings and ideas into publishers. He did not advocate the personal approach for the beginner, saying if personal explanation is necessary to put over a cartoon, it will not be worth publishing.

Mr. Partch was introduced to J.C. students by Art Club president, Joe Bragdon.

UGC PLANNING STUDENT BODY SPRING PICNIC

Swimming, baseball, games, dancing, and plenty of eats will be the featured attractions at the U.G.C. annual picnic to be held Thursday, May 22, at Uvas Dam, for all members of the J.C. student body.

Miss June Handley, U.G.C. advisor, states that the location, which is about 25 miles from Watsonville and approximately a one and one-half hour drive from J.C., is ideal for the annual Spring Picnic.

Upsilon Gamma Chi will handle all the arrangements for the supper and the Men's Club will be in charge of games in the afternoon and evening.

A very important U.G.C. meeting is scheduled for 3 o'clock Monday, May 5, in the women's gym at which time plans will be made for the big picnic event. All girls are urgently requested to attend. Miss Handley states, "We must have a large turnout of girls at this meeting in order to successfully put on the Spring Picnic."

JC Women Go To City for Play Day

Miss June Handley, women's P.E. instructor, announced today that the teams for tomorrow's trip to San Francisco are ready. Participating in the sports day from Salinas will be a baseball team, a basketball team, and tennis and badminton teams.

The girls will leave early in the morning and will probably be finished playing early enough to see the last game of the doubleheader between Salinas J.C. and San Francisco J.C.

S.J.C. Netsters Top Marin, 5-2

Continuing on their winning way, the title bound Salinas J.C. tennis team took the measure of the Marin Jaysee netsters in a match played on the local courts last Saturday. The Panthers swept through the first three singles matches and both doubles while the invaders captured the four and five singles matches.

S.J.C. top man, George Gossler wasted little time in disposing of Mariner Frank Schall, 6-0, 6-7. Ray Marnach regained his winning form in downing Donald Schroeder, Marin second man, 6-4, 6-4. Ron Bebb had little trouble against Hoytt Bradstreet, winning 6-1, 6-1.

Marin cracked the win column when their fourth man, William Rice, topped Rouse Hinman, 6-4, 6-2. Longest match of the morning found Manuel Domingo losing a hard-fought contest to LeRoy Price, 4-6, 6-2, 6-0.

Gossler and Marnach remained undefeated in doubles play as they downed the top Marin duo, 7-5, 6-1. Don Prince returned to action in the second doubles match to aid Ron Bebb in a 6-2, 6-4 win.

Stivers, And Dillingham Lead Team to First Win

Stockton J.C. bowed to the Salinas track squad last Saturday as Coach Ed Adams' cindermen chalked up their first victory of the 1947 season by a score of 67½-63½. Dependable Ken Stivers and Dean Dillingham both were double winners for the Panthers.

Stivers breezed to wins in the 100 and 220 with times of 9.9 and 22.2, respectively, while Dillingham heaved the javelin 151 feet 10 inches and copped the discus with a 108 foot 10 inch throw.

Stockton grabbed eight first places to seven for Salinas, but the locals nipped enough seconds and thirds to insure the hard-earned victory. Howard Stokes, visitors' lone threat, ran to the fore in the low hurdles and the 440-yard dash.

The summary:
Mile—Horst (St), Smith (S), Gustafson (St); 4:54.5.

880—King (S), Mitchler (St), Holmes (St); 2:08.2.

220—Stivers (S), Cloudsley (St), Frudden (S); 22.2.

100—Stivers (S), Hiserman (S), Frudden (S); 9.9.

Low hurdles—Stokes (St), Hiserman (S), Hess (St); 25.2.

High hurdles—Murray (St), Garcia (S), Council (S); 16.3.

Broad jump—Hess (St), Wright (S), Cloudsley (St); 20 feet 7¼ inches.

High jump—Dunlap (St), Lewis (S), Omoto (S) and Shelton (St) tied for third; 5 feet 11 inches.

Javelin—Dillingham (S), Ortez (St), Pontius (St); 151 feet 10 inches.

Shotput—John Cavanah (S), James Cavanah (S), Dillingham (S); 38 feet 5 inches.

Discus—Dillingham (S), Cavanah, John (S), Pontius (St); 108 feet 10 inches.

440—Stokes (St), Currier (S), Filson (S); 52.2.

Mile relay—Stockton; 3:35.

Pole vault—(Three-way tie), Light (S), Shelton (St), Williamson (St); 11 feet.

Two Mile—Gustafson (St), Hurst (St), Smith (S); 11:01.0.

GOLF SQUAD GAINS SPLIT

Golf play during the past week found the Panther squad gaining a split in a pair of matches. The golfers journeyed to Modesto on April 24 only to drop a 20½-6½ decision to the Pirate squad. Playing host to the Marin J.C. squad last Saturday, the locals made a clean sweep of all matches to gain a 12-0 win over the Mariners.

Carl Moguson, playing number two man for Modesto, was medalist for the day with a fine 72; low for Salinas was Dave Nelson who carded a 78. Bob Williams and Nelson led Panther point-getters by picking up two each in individual play.

Marin offered little in the way of competition and all of the local golfers walked off with easy wins. Norman Nuck and Jim Gillette, playing one and two for Salinas, were low scorers for the day. Nuck toured the Salinas links in 79 strokes, while Gillette carded an 81. Also competing for S.J.C. were Wendell Olson and Russ Bohlke.

Panther Teams Battle For Top League Honors

Sports activities hit their peak this week as four Salinas athletic teams engage their most powerful competitors with the N.C.J.C.C. championship races moving into their final stages.

The tennis and baseball results will definitely affect the conference standings with the

Prien, Mornard Hit

Local Nine Splits San Mateo Tilts

With Jim Prien bashing out three hits in three trips to the plate, and Stan Miller holding the San Mateo Bulldogs to three safeties, the Salinas Junior College Panthers earned a 7-1 victory in the nightcap to gain a split in their doubleheader last Saturday on the Salinas diamond.

LOCALS CHECKED

San Mateo checked the home towners' advance toward the time when they stalled the Panther machine by walloping the ball all over the field to win the opener, 11-5. Charlie Mornard and Clarence Twitchell collected seven base knocks between them, but to no avail.

Prien, after being hit rather hard in the opener, reversed the tables by aiding Miller to his third win in four starts on the hill.

Salinas held a meager 1-0 advantage when Prien stepped up with the bags bulging and smacked a round tripper to put the contest on ice.

Miller needed little help after that, as he put the visitors down in apple pie order. Miller whiffed five enemy batsmen, and did not issue a single base on balls.

The curtain raiser was a little different story as the Bulldogs enjoyed a field day at the expense of the opposing Panther hurler, Jim Prien, who was given sloppy support by his teammates. The Bulldogs played errorless ball, and every time the locals threatened they were set down with startling rapidity.

TWITCHELL, MORNARD HIT

Charlie Mornard and Clarence Twitchell fattened their healthy batting averages by garnering four and three hits respectively.

The Panthers left numerous men stranded on the basepaths in the first encounter, batting out 12 hits and drawing five bases on balls. The best the locals could do was score five times.

With the Maroon and Gold adding a win and a loss to their record, their chances of annexing the Northern Junior Collegiate crown hinge on the outcome of this week's twin bill with the second place San Francisco Rams. The Rams are one-half game off the pace-setting Panthers, who will need a double triumph to take undisputed possession of the first spot in the league's final standings.

Panthers holding narrow leads at present. Coach Darwin Peavy's netmen meet the San Mateo Bulldogs on the local courts in what promises to be one of the most important matches of the year.

In baseball, Coach Dom Campolo takes his title-bound Panthers to San Francisco where the locals will either shatter or consolidate their claim on the crown.

Although titles are not at stake in the track or golf contests, the Salinas contestants are hoping to continue their winning ways in both sports. Both the golf and track teams have improved steadily and last week they came through with their initial victories of the season.

The track squad takes the long journey to Modesto where it will compete in a four-way meet with Modesto, Sacramento, and San Mateo jaysees. Coach Ed Adams is well pleased with the Panthers' swing toward the right side of the ledger, and with Ken Stivers and Arnie Hiserman in top form, the Salinas team will have to be reckoned with.

Golf finds Miss June Handley's linksters playing host to the Sacramento clan at Del Monte this Saturday.

Stivers to Run In National J.C. Meet in Phoenix

Coach Ed Adams announced this week that he will take Ken Stivers, ace Salinas sprintman, to Phoenix, Arizona, on May 9, for the annual National Junior College Track Meet to be run May 9 and 10. Adams is foregoing any chance that the Panthers may have in the N.C.J.C.C. meet to give Stivers a chance to show his stuff in semi-bigtime competition.

Salinas, which has shown nothing on the oval this season to warrant their capturing of the N.C.J.C.C. crown, will not enter a full team in the conference affair which is to be run off the same day as the Phoenix meet.

Other Panther trackmen will be given a chance to make the Phoenix jaunt should they show up well in the weekend meet at Sacramento. Arnold Hiserman and Dean Dillingham are possibilities if they can improve on their season records to date.
